Miss Frances Platt elected new librarian September 10, 1945.

Mr. Norman Maine presented the library with a book "Mission Accomplished", one which he brought from Germany.

An oil painting and a picture of Thomas Cheney was presented to the Library by Mrs. Lucy Cheney.

Also a $500.00 Trust Fund was established in memory of her son, Thomas Cheney. Money to be used for purchase of books on New Hampshire and historical novels. Book Plate for said books, also 250 prints at the cost of $50.00 were also given.

Reason for large balance is due to fact that many books have been ordered but not delivered.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Buildings and Grounds

Two important additions to our school facilities, one practically completed and one under consideration, are described in this report.

The school shop, purchased in accordance with a vote of the district at the 1945 annual meeting, has been equipped with better foundation, a heating system (which will some day soon be provided with an oil burner), running water, and toilet facilities. With the help of the boys in their regular shop classes, new hardwood benches are being built. A metal-working lathe and shaper have been made available from surplus war equipment. This large, well-lighted building when fully completed and equipped will compare favorably with any school shop in the state.

As to the other addition, it is proposed to provide a building to be used as a gymnasium and auditorium for the use of the school and community. As a first step toward providing such a structure, a survey of land now owned by the district has been made showing grades, buildings, trees and boundaries. The survey also includes land on Highland Street owned by Mrs. Gertrude Fifield, whose place has been mentioned as a desirable site for the proposed building. An architect has been asked to prepare preliminary sketches for our consideration.

At a special meeting of the district held on February 4, 1945, the school board was authorized to apply for Federal Funds for planning, in order that more definite proposals may be placed before the voters for their consideration at some time in the near future.

A New Junior High School Teacher

The need for a full-time teacher of junior high school subjects has been evident for a long time. Throughout the first six grades, pupils have been accustomed to one teacher who teaches all subjects throughout the day. In the high school, they go from one teacher to another, and have frequent study periods under supervision of some teacher who may not be familiar with them or their class assignments. Our seventh graders, twelve or thirteen years old, have often found the change too abrupt, and have not learned readily how to use their study periods to advantage. To remedy this situation, the school board has employed Mrs. Ruth Joyce, hitherto our sixth grade teacher, as an additional teacher on the high school staff, but whose work is entirely with Grades 7 and 8.

World Problems and Education

The calendar year 1945 has seen history made more rapidly than ever before. Events of deep meaning for the future have followed one another with breathtaking speed. It will be a long time before we fully realize the significance of the great war that has now come to an end; of the release of the new power known as atomic energy; and of the vast political enterprise now barely begun, called the United Nations.

Children in our schools and homes must come to think of themselves not only as citizens of New Hampshire, not only as Americans, but also as citizens of the world. Sympathy and friendship are not to stop in a neighboring county, nor even in a distant state like Texas or California; they must reach likewise to Burma, Siberia, and the Congo region. Just as Hitler used the schools to develop fanatical hatred to vast destructive ends, so we must use them to indoctrinate children throughout the world with the idea that we can all get along together like good neighbors.

Such an attitude of world-neighborliness can be developed only as teachers and parents will come to realize the importance of it, and as they learn to develop broader tolerance in their own hearts. To develop world-neighborliness, schools need gradually to replace old geographies and histories with new texts of broader outlook; and until such books are available, teachers must try to interpret the lessons in our present books in such a way that pupils will come to see their relationship to the rest of the world.

The war has also taught us other lessons about education. It has proved, through experience in army camps, that young people can learn much faster and more effectively than they are in the habit of learning. It has shown that our traditional methods of teaching can be greatly speeded up if necessary and has demonstrated the value of moving pictures, still pictures, and other modern devices that give children a clearer understanding of what they read and recite about. And it has brought vividly to our consciousness the need for more thorough and complete training in health and physical education.

These are just a few of the important lessons we should have learned in 1945. Let us try to profit by them in 1946, and in the years ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

ALMON W. BUSHNELL,

Superintendent of Schools.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

School opened in September with several new members on the faculty. Miss Margaret Arnold, a teacher of many years experience is teaching English and World Problems. Mr. John Bane, who served in the United States Coast Guard, and who recently completed his graduate studies, is teaching Social Studies, Physical Education and Coaching. Miss Mildred Pugatch, a graduate of Boston University, is teaching Commercial Subjects. Mrs. Ruth Joyce, who taught in the sixth grade for several years, is now teaching Junior High School subjects.

A testing and guidance program has been formulated. The members of the Senior and Junior Classes were administered a series of aptitude tests and interest inventories in the late fall. The value of the results obtained warrants consideration of the expansion of this service to other classes.

Student Clubs include personal typing, for those who wish to know how to type for their own interests, knitting, aeronautics, dramatics, and journalism. Through the efforts of the latter group it is hoped that a steady flow of publicity will keep the townspeople well informed of the activities of the school.

To the members of the School Board, the Superintendent of Schools and all others who, through their interest and cooperation, have assisted and encouraged our development, I am deeply grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN P. McCARTHY,
Headmaster.
